

EVERGREEN & OREGON CMAA PRESENT

Andy Stangenberg, founder of the Q Principle,
The Spirit of Leadership

Thursday, February 11, 2021 | 9:00am – 10:30am

Register for Zoom | Complimentary for Chapter Members and their Staff

Discover advanced leadership strategies designed for all ranks and titles. This presentation concentrates on critical components of leadership such as higher purpose, care, recovery skills, positive energy, team alignment, and happiness. Furthermore, it will focus on two critical elements – accountability and responsibility.

You'll come away with new forward-thinking approach tactics to help you and your team innovate and lead at your club. The content, enriched by reality-based research studies, coaches proactive thinking and offers meaningful guidance principles when dealing with staff and co-workers. The Q-Principle became globally known for its innovative “throw the box away” thinking approach, and this program is sure to spark new skills and ideas.
